

Form 611—General Information
(Articles of Revocation of Dissolution—Limited Liability Company)

The attached form is a standardized form designed to meet minimal statutory filing requirements pursuant to the relevant statutory provisions. *This form and the information provided are not substitutes for the advice and services of an attorney and tax specialist.

Commentary: Pursuant to article 6.06 of the Texas Limited Liability Company Act (article 1528n Texas Revised Civil Statutes, a limited liability company [LLC], including a professional limited liability company, may revoke the voluntary dissolution of the limited liability company by obtaining the written consent of all of its members and by filing articles of revocation of dissolution with the secretary of state. The document must be filed within 120 days from the date of filing of the articles of dissolution by the secretary of state. A delayed effective date does not extend the time within which to file the articles of revocation of dissolution.

Upon issuance of the certificate of revocation of dissolution by the secretary of state the revocation shall become effective, the existence of the LLC shall be deemed to have continued without interruption, and the LLC may again carry on its business as if the dissolution had not occurred.

- Items 1 and 2—Name and Filing Number: Provide the name of the LLC and the filing number issued by the secretary of state. Provision of the filing number is recommended as it will facilitate processing of the document. A file number also is commonly referred to as a "Charter Number."
- Item 3—Effective Date of Dissolution: Provide the effective date of the dissolution. If the articles of dissolution were filed without a delayed effective date, the date provided will be the date of filing by the secretary of state. If the effectiveness of the articles of dissolution was delayed pursuant to Article 9.03 of the TLLCA, and the dissolution is now effective, then the date provided will be the delayed effective date. If the effectiveness of the document was delayed and the effective date has not occurred at the time of submission, then mark the appropriate statement after item 3.
- Items 4 and 5—Authorization of Revocation: The articles of dissolution must be authorized by the written consent of all members. Provide the date on which the revocation of dissolution was authorized by the LLC's members in item 4.
- Name Availability: PLEASE NOTE THAT THE SECRETARY OF STATE MUST DETERMINE WHETHER THE LLC NAME IS STILL AVAILABLE. If the LLC name is the same as or deceptively similar to, or similar to the name of an existing corporation, limited partnership, or limited liability company, the document cannot be filed. If the entity name is unavailable, then it will be necessary for the LLC to simultaneously file articles of amendment changing the name of the LLC in order to file the articles of revocation of dissolution. The administrative rules adopted for determining entity name availability (Texas Administrative Code, Title 1, Part 4, Chapter 79, Subchapter C) may be viewed at www.sos.state.tx.us/tac/index.html. If you wish the secretary of state to provide a preliminary determination on "name availability," you may call (512) 463-5555 or e-mail your name inquiry to corpinfo@sos.state.tx.us. This is a preliminary determination. The final determination on the name will be made at the time the document is filed.
- Execution: An authorized manager or managing-member must sign the articles of revocation of dissolution. Prior to signing, please read the statements on this form carefully. A person commits an offense under the Texas Business Corporation Act, the Texas Limited Liability Company Act or the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act if the person signs a document the person knows is false in any material respect with the intent that the document be delivered to the secretary of state for filing. The offense is a Class A misdemeanor.
